"And now you are invited to watch as another chapter of history is added to the pride of Muskegon Country: the 1980 edition of the Big Red Marching Band, with Color Guard Captain Lisa Franklin and introducing this year's man up front, Drum Major Scott Sanderson" That is what you heard every time you watched the great marching band perform at Hackley Stadium.

Before football season started, way back in August, all members went to Band Camp at Camp Innisfree for a week. They worked every day in the rain, in the cold, and in the heat. They got into shape for a good season.

This year the band performed many shows, went to Traverse City, and had band exchanges with Benton Harbor and Catholic High Schools.

Even though Marching Band is hard work, there are rewards: the excitement of performing great shows on the field and seeing Mr. James Lawrence's (the director) face shine with pride, and knowing

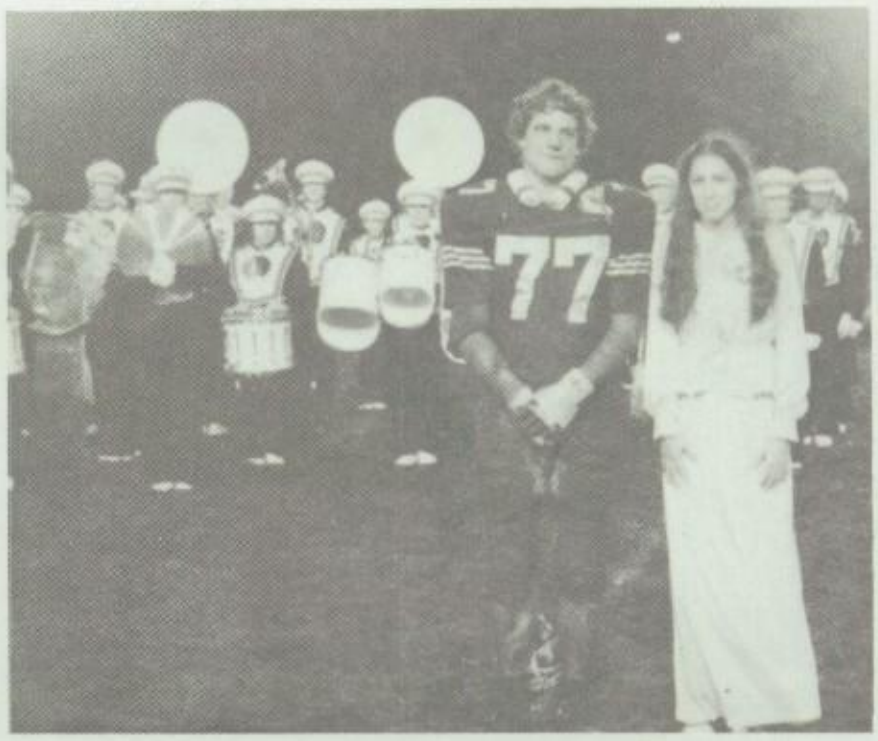
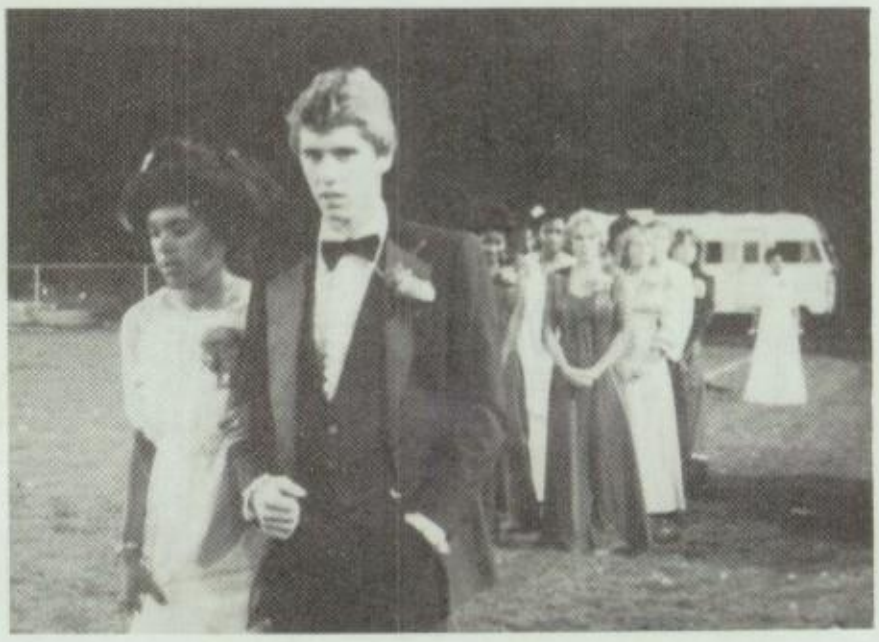
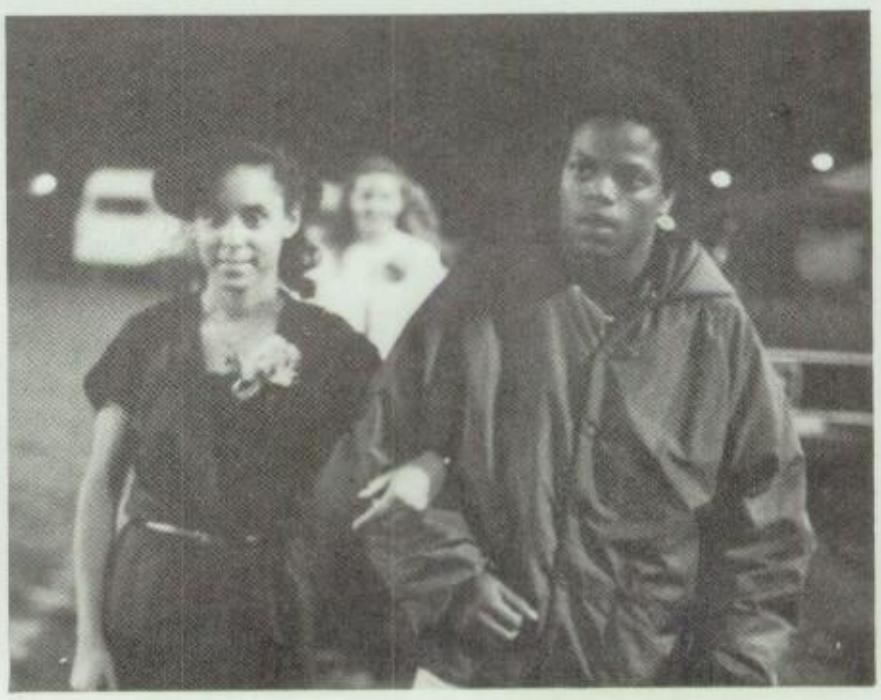
THEY CREATED CLASS . . .







On October 24, 1980, on a cold, winter-like night, Muskegon High School had its 1980 Homecoming. It was preceeded by Fall Spirit Week, and everyone enjoyed it.

Half-time of the Muskegon vs. Saginaw Arthur Hill game included the display of floats and the coronation.

Chosen to reign over a fine looking Court were Queen Sequita Jackson and King Edwin "Kirky" Sanford.

FACES

Faces are expression
they laugh, they cry.
Some even learn to live and love
but only if they try.
Faces are many
and they go by many names.
They don't all go the same way,
somehow they get here and there,
just the same.

The 1980 Big Red Football team might be low in the win column, but their heads are high. Muskegon had an emotional, total team victory over Muskegon Catholic Central, the State Class "B" Champions. Muskegon placed the only blemish on Catholic's record. In four of the remaining eight games, Muskegon lost by a touchdown or less.

The team tri-captains were Jim Alderink (Most Valuable Player), John Rogers, and Kirky Sanford. Kirky was the leading rusher with 753 yards. The team manager was Chris McCollum. All-L.M.A.C. players were Sanford, Alderink, Derick Stinson, Daryl Jefferson, and Larry Veihl.

The new Head Coach for the Big Reds was Mike Cieslak. Mr. Cieslak commented, "Sure our won-lost record may be disappointing, but the season was rewarding for the relationships we established. This year's Seniors and underclassmen have lain a solid foundation-one that the future can be built upon."

Showcase featuring many famous Black Americans illustrating Black History Month-1981.

The showcase in the main hall was completed as usual for Black History Month in February only it wasn't completed by ABS (Association for Black Students), it was done by a group of students that organized themselves with the help of Mrs. Gloria Frazier.

The idea was brought about by Library Clerk, Gloria Frazier and the idea was okayed by Mr. Kasher.

The showcase features Black Americans who have found success in history, music, sports, education, politics, science, arts, and medicine, complete with African statues donated by the group.

The idea of the showcase was not only to illustrate Black History Month but capture the students' attention in hopes of increasing their knowledge of Black history.

Pictures from George Washington Carver to Kareem Abdul-Jabarr were placed in the showcase, letting students know that all Black history-makers are not deceased.

All students who participated in the completion of the showcase would like to express feelings of gratitude and special thanks to Mrs. Gloria Frazier and Mrs. Carolyn James.

All creatures now are merry merry-minded.
The shepherds' daughters playing.
The nymphs are fa-la-laing,
Yond bugle was well winded.
At Oriana's presence each thing smileth.
The flowers themselves discover;
Birds over her do hover;
Music the time beguileth.
See where she comes with flowery garlands crowned,
Queen of all queens renowned.
Then sang the shepherds and nymphs of Diana;
Long live fair Oriana.

The team profited from its experience; making new acquaintances and expanding their horizons of knowledge. Team Captain was Carl Smith, with Mark Hegedus, David Haglund, Shawn Mc Kee, and alternates Mark Walters and Cynthia Lawrence. Advisor was Mrs. Jean Trump.

WINTER CARNIVAL ADDS SPICE TO MICHIGAN WINTERS

What is Winter Carnival? It is an annual social event at MHS that always breaks up the monotony of a long, hard winter. On a Friday evening, the cafeteria is transformed into an array of booths providing activities, food, games of chance, races, games of skill, and the Student Council Jail. You can participate in a computer dating scheme, throw darts at your favorite teacher's picture, win a cake, have someone thrown in jail, and eat until you are stuffed! That's what Winter Carnival is!
